

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF ST. LOUIS
NATIONAL ARCHIVES AND RECORDS ADMINISTRATION

EXTENSION OF JULY 29, 2016 DIGITIZATION LETTER OF AGREEMENT

1. The Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis ("Bank"), a federally chartered Federal Reserve Bank established under the Federal Reserve Act of 1913, 12 U.S.C. § 221, et seq., and the National Archives and Records Administration ("NARA"), an independent agency in the executive branch of the United States Government with its headquarters in Washington, DC, hereby enter into the following extension ("Extension") of the Letter of Agreement ("Agreement") entered into on July 29, 2016 (attached hereto).

2. All terms as set forth in the Agreement remain unchanged, except the following:

A. Paragraph X is amended as follows:

Period of Performance and Termination. This Agreement, originally effective as of July 29, 2016, for a period of three years, is hereby extended and will remain in effect until July 28, 2021, or one year after the completion date of any Project defined in a Project Plan, whichever is longer, unless terminated sooner by either party by providing ninety (90) days prior written notice. If a ninety day termination notice is given by NARA for other than cause, the termination will not be effective as to any Project Plan in process until the project described therein is completed unless completion is prevented by any requirements of law or any rule or regulation of any governmental authority. The provisions of Sections V, VI, VII, and VIII shall survive termination of this Agreement for any reason.

3. The Bank and NARA affirm that this Extension is the entire agreement regarding the subject matter set forth herein. The parties agree that any modifications to this Extension will be made only in writing duly executed by the Bank and NARA.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Bank and NARA have caused this Extension to be executed by their duly authorized representatives, effective as of the Effective Date (defined as the latest day on which either signatory signs).
