

National Archives and Records Administration
19th Annual Preservation Conference

Parchment and Titanium Preserving the Charters of Freedom

Thursday, September 22, 2005

National Archives Building
700 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, DC
8:45am to 4:45pm

The Conference will focus on the multi-year, state of the art project undertaken by the National Archives to preserve and re-encase our Nation's most treasured documents.

The Conference addresses issues of interest to archivists, historians, conservators, museum curators, exhibit designers and specialists in preservation.

The registration fee is $75.00

Pre-registration by September 1 is encouraged.

Attendees can pay by check or credit card.

For information, please contact

Richard Schneider - Conference Coordinator
301-837-3617 or richard.schneider@nara.gov

Please visit <http://www.archives.gov/preservation/index.html>