

Conservation² = Preserving Collections x Our Environment

25th Annual Preservation Conference of the National Archives and Records Administration

Program for Wednesday, March 16th

8:00 – 9:00 Registration/Continental Breakfast

Morning Session

Moderator: Doris A. Hamburg, Director, Preservation Programs, NARA

9:00 – 9:25 Welcome Remarks

☞ David S. Ferriero, Archivist of the United States

9:25 – 10:45 Why Archives? An Advocate's Role

☞ Dr. Michael J. Kurtz, Assistant Archivist [Retired], Office of Records Services, NARA, Washington, DC and Professor, School of Information Sciences, University of Maryland, College Park, MD

Why Preservation Needs Conservation² to Succeed

☞ Dr. Steven P. Hamburg, Chief Scientist, Environmental Defense Fund

Discussion

10:45 – 11:15 Break – Exhibitors and Resources - Lobby

11:15 – 12:30 Facing Change: Basing Heritage Conservation on Broader Stewardship Principles

☞ Jerry Podany, President of the International Institute for Conservation and Objects Conservator, Getty Museum

Leaders of Change: Strategies for Meeting the Environmental Challenge

☞ Nancy Bell, Head of Collections Care, The National Archives, UK

Discussion

12:30 – 1:45 Lunch in the Inn and Conference Center, UMUC

Afternoon Session

Moderator: Nancy Davis, National Preservation Program Officer, NARA

1:45 – 3:00 Quantifying Preservation Quality in Environments

☞ James Reilly, Director, Image Permanence Institute

Gathering Evidence and Funding Sustainability

☞ Kristen Laise, Vice President, Collections Care Programs, Heritage Preservation

☞ Laura Word, Senior Program Officer, National Endowment for the Humanities

Discussion

3:00 – 3:30 Break - Exhibitors and Resources

3:30 – 4:50 Solid-State Lighting in the US: Saving Energy by the Quadrillions

☞ Naomi Miller, Senior Lighting Engineer, Pacific Northwest National Lab and

☞ Jim Druzik, Physical Scientist, Getty Conservation Institute

Gleaning Preservation Information: Third Party and NARA Testing Results

☞ Dr. Jennifer Herrmann, Chemist, and

☞ Mark Ormsby, Physicist, NARA

Discussion

5:00 – 6:30 Reception in the Exhibitors Lobby area

Conservation² = Preserving Collections x Our Environment

25th Annual Preservation Conference of the National Archives and Records Administration

Program for Thursday, March 17th

8:30 – 9:00 Continental Breakfast

Morning Session

Moderator: Catherine (Kitty) Nicholson, Deputy Director, Conservation Division, Preservation Programs, NARA

9:00 – 10:30 The Conservation² Building = Efficiency + Longevity

☞ Michael C. Henry, Watson & Henry Associates and Adjunct Professor of Architecture, University of Pennsylvania

Case Studies-Sustainable Climate Control Strategies in Hot-Humid & Marine Climates

☞ Dr. Shin Maekawa, Sr. Scientist, Getty Conservation Institute

Discussion

10:30 – 11:00 Break – Exhibitors and Resources

11:00 – 12:15 Moving towards Sustainable Operations

☞ Mark Sprouse, Director, Facilities and Property Management, NARA

The Toledo Museum of Art Goes Green: The Project Continues

☞ Suzanne Hargrove, Head of Conservation, Toledo Museum of Art

Discussion

12:15 – 1:30 Lunch in the Inn and Conference Center, UMUC

Afternoon Session

Moderator: Criss Kovac, Head, Motion Picture Preservation Reformatting, Preservation Programs, NARA

1:30 – 2:50 Energy Savings Trial in the Library of Congress Adams Building Collections Stacks

☞ Nancy Lev-Alexander, Head, Preventive Conservation, Library of Congress

Optimizing Environments and Operations

☞ Peter Herzog, Principal, Herzog/Wheeler & Associates

Discussion

2:50 – 3:20 Afternoon Break – Exhibitors and Resources

3:20 – 4:10 An Actual Green, 100 Year Solution for Long Term Digital Storage

☞ Rob Hummel, President, Group 47, LLC

☞ Daniel Rosen, Partner, Group 47, LLC

Discussion

4:10 – 4:25 Concluding Remarks